CALL FOR PAPERS

Volume 9 Number 1, 2026

Introduction: The African Resources Development Journal (ARDJ) invites papers for publication in the upcoming volume 9 of the Journal 2026 before 28th February 2026

About the Journal: The African Resources and Development Journal (ARDJ) is a referred, international, biannual Journal published twice a year in May and November, based in the Department of Geography, Tourism and Hospitality Studies, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences of the Open University of Tanzania (OUT). Salaam. ARDJ is an applied Journal containing peer reviewed high quality and scholarly articles focused on Natural Resources Conservation and Management, Population Studies, Poverty and Community Action, Gender and Development, Urban Development and Management, Demography, Spatial Planning, Environmental Management and Protection, Livelihood Issues, Property Management, Land Use Planning, Wildlife Management, Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation, Human Settlements Planning and Management, Disaster Management and Tourism related issues. Besides, Research Notes, Conference Reports, Viewpoints, Book Reviews and events are also welcome.

Submission of softcopy of manuscript: Authors are required to submit a softcopy of the final version of the paper along with the final manuscript to Editorial Office. It should include the author's name and affiliation and an address for correspondence. Authors should inform the editors immediately of any change in address after a manuscript has been submitted. The manuscript should observe the general instructions on style/arrangement including the reference style. Only materials that have never been published/ submitted for publication elsewhere will be considered.

Received articles are subjected to critical peer reviewing by members of the Editorial Board themselves and identified competent experts in specific areas of specialization to examine originality, relevance, clarity, methodology, validity of data, reasonable and logical flow of the entire presentation. Whenever necessary, Editors reserve the right to demand separate detailed information from the author on methodology used, data analysis model employed or as may be applicable. Articles are reviewed without names of authors to ensure objectivity in the review process. A decision on every manuscript will be communicated to respective author(s) within three months from submission date. Authors are expected to revise their papers (keep alterations to the minimum) as soon as comments from the reviewers are received; and return a corrected version to the Editors for consideration. If corrected proofs are not returned within a reasonable time of dispatch, the Editorial Board reserve the right to reject, edit any submitted article approved for publication. The Publisher reserves the right to charge authors for excessive and unreasonable corrections made in proofs. When papers have been refereed, revised and accepted, authors are required to send softcopy of the final version with the respective final hard copy.
